

I totally support XM radio. It has been such a wonderful benefit living near the mountains. When we went skiing the past ski season, we could get only XM radio and no local. XM radio let us know what the weather conditions were in a place that could not get any other signal. This is a benefit that I have chosen to pay for. It would not be right for anyone to take that right away.